A cut above rest for deals on mowers

SUMMER is almost here, and after the recent rains the mowing season is also getting into full swing keeping Brett and Liz Johnson at New Norfolk Mowers and Chainsaws very busy with everyone eager to get moving.

With the strong Australian dollar, now is the time to buy a new ride-on mower, with prices drastically cheaper than the same time last year.

There are savings of more than $500 to be made on some models.

The Craftsman ride-on range offers superb quality and they are priced from just $2499 for a 38 inch (97cm) cut, 17.5 horse powered machine which is great value for money

We stock a huge range of spare parts and accessories, and do quality repairs on most major brands and $500 cheaper than last spring. They stock power equipment to suit everyone's needs, from the home user to professional contractors.

They stock Victa, Masport, Makita, Bushranger, Briggs and Stratton and Craftsman products.

New Norfolk Mowers and Chainsaws have been situated at their Hamilton Rd location for more than four years, and are finding the extra room perfectly suits their needs.

"Our customers all appreciate the ample and level parking which also makes it easier to load and unload customer's goods," said Brett.

"We stock a huge range of spare parts and accessories, and do quality repairs on most major brands.

"All our work is guaranteed."

Now is the time to call into New Norfolk Mowers and Chainsaws at the Carwash complex on Hamilton Rd, where you will find plenty of parking and friendly service, and get to see Brett and Liz for all your power equipment needs.

BRAND POWER: Liz and Brett Johnson, from New Norfolk Mowers and Chainsaws, with some of their quality ride on mowers.
